LAT'S PRODUCTS NOW INTEGRATE WITH EOS.WEB
Expand Self Service options to Special Libraries

SOMERDALE, NJ, January 5, 2008: Library Automation Technologies, Inc. (LAT), a leader in library automation products, is pleased to announce that it now fully supports and integrates, across its entire FlashScan and allCIRC product lines, with the EOS International, a leader in web-based automation software for special and corporate libraries.

This integration provides mutual customers the confidence that LAT patron self service solutions will operate seamlessly within EOS.Web Integrated Library System.

Oleg Boyarsky, President and CEO of LAT commented "Our integration with EOS.Web is yet another example of LAT's universality and flexibility to provide self service solutions across various back-end platforms. EOS is a leader in web-based ILS solutions to special and corporate libraries, so it makes absolute sense that we address this market to further deliver value to our customers."

EOS is at the forefront of library automation and knowledge management, offering Web-based EOS.Web which provides anytime, anywhere connectivity to personalized information resources for employees, business partners and customers - whether they are across the hall or on the other side of the world. LAT's technologically advanced, portable, self-service solutions and CD/DVD dispensing systems offer intuitive ease of use and unprecedented flexibility to address needs of the special libraries market.
